MEMORANDUM

TO: EMMANUEL W. ONUNWOR
MAYOR-EAST CLEVELAND

DATE: 6/9/98

FROM: JAMES AVERY-PRESIDENT
BLACK ON BLACK 2000

RE: STATE OF OHIO VS.
DERRICK WHEAT
CASE NO.: 324431
JUDGE STUART SAFERIN

CONVICTION: MURDER
SENTENCE: LIFE IN PRISON (15 YEARS TO LIFE)

We at Black on Black 2000 believe that Derrick Wheat, Laurese Glover, and Eugene Johnson are victims of circumstance. These three (3) innocent young have been sentenced to life in prison for murder at the Madison Correctional Institute, while the real murderer is still walking the streets of our community.

LOCATION OF THE CRIME:

The scene where this tragedy took place was the East Cleveland community in the 1700 block of Strathmore; the victim, Clifton Hudson was shot and fell to his death.

INVESTIGATION:

The East Cleveland Police, Investigating Officer, Det. Vincent Johnstone should have taken further witness statements of residents in the area who came forward as eyewitnesses.

For example, Starley Johnson and other family members, observed from their living room window the shooting that led to this tragic incident. The eyes of the killer are embedded in the memory of this young man forever.

STATE WITNESS AT TRIAL

Tamika Harris, 14 year old, star witness at Trial, who was described by family members as unstable, changed her statements, description of the incident, and shooters several times during her testimony.

DEFENSE PRESENTATION:

The Black on Black 2000 has obtained a video tape statement saying that the accused are guilty of this murder. This statement describes the actual murder.

CONCLUSION

Black on Black does not have the authority to do criminal investigations. Black on Black does not have the authority to issue subpoenas. But their investigation has brought forth other witnesses. BUT STILL A BOLD KILLER STILL WALKS THE STREETS OF EAST CLEVELAND.
